

You Must Remember This: Songs at the Heart of the War

Make You Mine

I twirl my hair as you sit down next to me,
You're new to school, and I want to set you free,
I smile wide as you look into my eyes
If class were over, I would pick you as my prize.

I can't help thinking, this is like love at first sight,
If you were with me, I would make everything all right,
The bell will ring soon, it's time to make you mine,
It's time to make you mine.

CHORUS

Running down the halls,
Spinning round until we fall,
You will hold my hand so tight,
Everyone will know it's right,
Eating lunch under the sun,
Making school be so much fun,
Every dance you'll be my date,
But for now, I can just wait.

BRIDGE

I wonder...when will you notice me
I wonder...when will you notice me

I spent all of lunch, staring at you from my seat,
My friends were asking why I could barely eat,
I want to say "hi," but I don't know how to start,
It seems so easy, but it's not inside my heart.

Thump thump, it's racing so very fast,
I start to walk, and I think my legs won't last,
Lunch will be over soon, it's time to make you mine,
I'm almost out of time.

BRIDGE

School is over, and you don't even know my name.
